

A Clean-Cut Piano Argument

A clean cut argument with sentiment enough to give it charm in favor of a piano for every family is: to own a piano; to have your home a musical one. Music gives recreation; develops mind, hand, heart and soul; stimulates interest in all things; advances position and promotes the health and happiness of all. To enjoy the benefit of music it must be good music. Such are the melodies of simple exercises when played on the CHICKERING BROTHERS, RAYMOND, BUSH & LANE or HAINES BROTHERS Pianos.

RAIN OF COIN

Fell on Stage After Mr. Stead's Address.

PEACE PILGRIMAGE

Must be Financed and a Good Start Is Made at Carnegie Institute Re-dedication Exercises.

Pittsburg, April 13.—At the close of a remarkable address by William T. Stead, editor of "Review of Reviews," London, England, at the re-dedication ceremonies of the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburg, late Friday, in which the speaker announced a plan to raise $100,000 necessary to conduct the pilgrimage from all countries to The Hague conference, advocated in a recent New York address, unbounded enthusiasm took possession of the large audience and money was thrown to the floor of the stage.

Probably never has a public speaker been given such an ovation in this city. The lightning-like rapidity with which Mr. Stead's plan to finance the pilgrimage began almost took the breath from the distinguished foreign and American guests attending the exercises. Mr. Stead in his speech severely scored the newspapers of the world, saying they were the real distillers and cause of wars. Mr. Stead after explaining the purpose of the pilgrimage to the next Hague conference estimated that it would take at least $100,000 to finance the proposition. To raise this sum he proposed that every boy and girl in colleges and universities throughout the United States donate 50 cents toward the fund needed. He said the lesson furnished to Europe by such a movement would be an influential factor in the quest of international peace.

The suggestion came at the end of his address and he sat down amid loud applause. For fully five minutes the clapping and cheering was prolonged and finally the speaker again arose and said that probably the audience would like to contribute to the fund. Immediately a shower of silver money landed on the stage, coming from all parts of the hall.

Among the invited guests who were seated upon the stage there were many presidents of universities and colleges and at the close of the meeting the following institutions, through their heads, decided to contribute to the fund:

Knox college, Galesburg, Ill.
Allegheny college, Meadville, Pa.
Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute, Tuskegee, Ala.
Geneva college, Beaver Falls, Pa.
It is said that other colleges will soon announce their intention to contribute. The Pittsburg branch of the National Peace society has taken up the matter and the Grand Army posts have presented Mr. Stead with a resolution of thanks for his effort for peace.

The banquet given by the trustees of the Carnegie Institute in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, the founder, was held last night at the Hotel Schenley. The banquet was the most brilliant ever held in the city.

Burnham Is Disbarred.
New York, April 13.—The appellate division of the supreme court on Friday handed down a decision granting a motion to disbar George Burnham, Jr. The petition for his disbarment was filed on behalf of the Bar association and was based upon the fact of Burnham's conviction, on December 16, 1905, of the crime of grand larceny in the first degree in connection with the affairs of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Co. He was sentenced to state prison for two years. Burnham was admitted to the bar in 1881.

Appealed for Kelsey's Retention.
Albany, N. Y., April 13.—In an eloquent speech, lasting nearly two hours, ex-Supreme Court Justice Edward W. Hatch on Friday, before the senate judiciary committee, concluded the appeal of Otto Kelsey against removal from the office of state superintendent of insurance, recommended to the senate on February 20 by Gov. Hughes. The hearing was then closed. No definite action probably will be taken by the judiciary committee before its meeting on Wednesday.

Wendell Is Dishonorably Discharged.
Albany, N. Y., April 13.—Capt. Louis Wendell, commanding the Third battery, has been dishonorably discharged from the military service of the state, upon conviction by a court martial of irregularities in his management of the battery army under his control. Gov. Hughes announced his approval of the findings and sentence of the court martial, except that he disapproved a fine of $100 imposed in addition to the dishonorable discharge.

Would Oust A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge.
Columbus, O., April 13.—Concident with the 611st Friday in the circuit court by Attorney General Ellis of a suit in quo warranto to oust the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Ohio from doing business in the state, the lodge filed an answer admitting the truth of the charge. Ellis' petition is brought on complaint of Insurance Commissioner Vorys. Two grounds for ouster are: That the lodge has failed to comply with the laws by filing reports and that it is not carrying out its contracts, because unable to do so. The lodge has death claims against it amounting to $150,000 and its funds are only $3,000.

Legislature and Governor Clash.
Austin, Tex., April 13.—With friction evident between Gov. Campbell and the members of the Texas legislature, that body adjourned sine die Friday after a four months' session and was reconvened in extra session within ten minutes by Gov. Campbell. Wednesday the governor vetoed the legislative act providing for the consolidation of branches of the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad. The senate and house passed the bill over his veto. The governor repeatedly demanded that the legislature pass stringent anti-corruption tax laws. Many of these bills were not enacted.

Refused to Accept the Confession.
Lexington, Ky., April 13.—Attorney Floyd Byrd, one of the counsel for the prosecution of William Britton, said Friday that John Abner, who is charged with the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox, has written a statement giving details of Abner's part in the Breckinridge county murders. Byrd refused to accept the confession, as he says he has evidence enough to convict all the defendants without promising Abner immunity for turning state's evidence.

A MONOLITH

In Memory of "Rough Riders" Is Dedicated.

PRESIDENT SPOKE.

Mr. Roosevelt Delivered a Patriotic Address—The Monument Is a Massive Granite Column.

Washington, April 13.—President Roosevelt made a speech in which he touched mainly on patriotism and good citizenship at the dedication Friday of the monument erected to the memory of the First cavalry, United States volunteers—the "Rough Riders"—of the Spanish-American war in the national cemetery at Arlington. Mrs. Allyn K. Cary, the widow of Capt. Cary, who fell at Las Guasimas, pulled the cord holding the American flag that covered the monument. Rev. D. J. Stafford, of St. Patrick's church, this city, made the dedication address.

Regular troops and part of the national guard of the District of Columbia participated in the exercises incident to the dedication. The president, accompanied by the White House by Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young, retired, and Maj. Frank B. McCoy, his naval aide, was met at Fort Myer by Capt. Preston's troop of the Thirtieth cavalry and escorted to the cemetery gates, where they were joined by the remainder of the military and naval contingent in the march to the monument. A distinguished company assembled on the stand from which the president delivered his address.

The monument is the design of Mrs. Cary. It is a monolith, the largest of its kind in Arlington. It is made of Vermont granite, stands 14 feet high on a base six by six feet. The memorial bears the names of more than 100 former members of the regiment who died either in Cuba or after the return of the regiment to the United States.

The main decoration is a bronze tablet bearing the regimental device, the crossed sabres, and a medallion with the names of the three battles in which the organization participated, Guasimas, San Juan and Santiago. Beneath the device is the inscription: "First United States volunteer cavalry, in memory of the deceased members of the First United States volunteer cavalry, Spanish-American war. Erected by members of the regiment, 1905."

Guy, formerly coroner of Queens county, was held to await the action of the grand jury following a coroner's inquest Friday into the death of his wife, Mrs. Lillian Guy, who was shot and killed at her home in Rockaway on the night of April 8. The jury found that Mrs. Guy died from a shot wound at the hands of some person unknown to the jury. A terrific explosion followed. Hender and Samuel Dunsee, a bystander, were struck by flying pieces of the stove and were seriously injured. The building was partly wrecked.

King's Signature.
Trifling as the actual work of signing his name may seem, yet when the number of times King Edward affixes his signature to documents is considered the work assumes something of the nature of hard, or at least confining, labor. It is estimated that his royal name is signed to not fewer than 80,000 official documents yearly, and in addition to these there are several hundred signatures affixed to his private correspondence.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Bad Weather Has Had a Deterrent Effect on Many Lines of Business.

New York, April 13.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Erratic weather makes trade reports irregular, retail sales of spring wearing apparel being retarded by storms and cold at many points, although some sections experience seasonable conditions. Temporary interruption to retail distribution has no ill effects upon jobbing and wholesale business, however, heavy transactions and shipments testifying to confidence in the future, while mercantile collections show further improvement.

Several strikes have retarded work, notably in sawmills at Portland, Ore., and in shipbuilding at Cleveland, but manufacturing returns are most satisfactory on the whole. Textile mills, machine shops, steel plants and footwear factories have little idle machinery, forward business appearing more rapidly than the rate of production in many cases.

Most encouraging news comes from the iron and steel industry, large sales of pig iron being made for delivery up to the end of the year.

Declared War on Filthy Restaurants

Cleveland, April 13.—Starting conditions have been found by sanitary patrolmen detailed to investigate public eating houses and bake shops. Notwithstanding the recent agitation, due to the arrest of several proprietors, and warnings sent out by the health office, there are many establishments that are unsanitary to a degree that makes them a menace to health. At the meeting of the health board Friday Dr. Friedrich requested that 16 restaurants and seven bake shops be condemned as nuisances, and that they be ordered closed. If the orders are not obeyed the proprietors will be arrested.

A Suit to Break a Will.

Coshocton, O., April 13.—Suit was brought Friday to break the will of the late John Haskett, who was reputed to be the richest man in this county. Four grandchildren, who are sons and daughters of Mrs. Belle Wright, of Columbus, charge that Ross Ward, a daughter, and John Haskett, a son, used fraudulent and undue influence over Haskett, whose mind was weak from old age, they say. The Columbus grandchildren had been cut off with a will. Haskett was worth $250,000.

A Wife Beater Is Pardoned.

Columbus, O., April 13.—Gov. Harris on Friday granted a pardon to Samuel Ryan, of Newark, who had been sentenced to 60 days in jail for beating his wife while he was intoxicated. Abstinence from intoxicating drinks was made a condition of the pardon. The case developed a fact apparently known to few mayors that when a prisoner is sentenced to jail their authority over the prisoner ceases and that commutations or pardons in such cases can only be granted through the governor.

An Almost Perfect Counterfeit.

Columbus, O., April 13.—What is said to be one of the best pieces of counterfeit coin ever passed in the city has turned up in a local saloon and is now in possession of the police. It is an almost perfect reproduction of a silver dollar. The execution of the design follows the original in the closest detail and its making is of the highest type. The sounding, however, is bad.

Ryan Will Try to Aid Foraker.

Niles, O., April 13.—Italians in East Niles have become frightened at the movements of the Black Hand society, and Friday sought protection of the mayor and police.

Playing for Safety.

A few weeks ago a negro, of Alabama, entering the witness box, said he thought he wouldn't swear. "Erastus," said the judge, "how is this? A month ago, when you appeared before me you consented readily enough to be sworn. Why is it you will only be affirmed now?" "Well, yo' honah," said Erastus, "de reason am dat I specks I ain't quite so sure about de facts o' dis case as I was o' de oder."

King's Signature.

Trifling as the actual work of signing his name may seem, yet when the number of times King Edward affixes his signature to documents is considered the work assumes something of the nature of hard, or at least confining, labor. It is estimated that his royal name is signed to not fewer than 80,000 official documents yearly, and in addition to these there are several hundred signatures affixed to his private correspondence.

A "PROMOTER IN TOWN"—He is selling stock in the greatest enterprise in the world. Many Marion stockholders who were so fortunate as to obtain shares several years ago, say that they are receiving dividends amounting to from 100 per cent to 500 per cent annually, and are advising their friends to buy quickly.

Like all other enterprises the success in obtaining big dividends depends upon those who handle the business. The stockholders of this concern do not depend upon others for the best results, but have the entire control of their own share, and can make a success in proportion to the personal interest they take. The shares may vary some in price, the average being about $75 and can be paid for in cash or in easy monthly payments. There is no person in any walk of life that cannot make the best investment of his life in buying one of these shares, as he will always receive big dividends as long as he lives, if he has the ambition to take advantage of this opportunity and get busy. Primary Colors.

Primary colors are the colors into which white light is separated by the dispersion of a prism. Those named by Newton are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. Artists reduce these to three—red, yellow and blue. Scientists generally consider red, green and blue to represent the primary color sensations, and in one theory there are supposed to be three sets of nerves in the retina which can respond to these three colors. The idea of three primary colors is that from the combination of these three all hues may be produced which are to be found in white light.

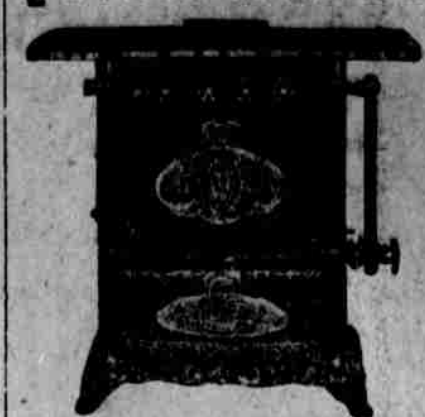

Philanthropist's Good Work.

William P. Letchworth, the donor of Glen Iris, the magnificent 1,000-acre estate that has been given to New York, is the originator of what is commonly known as the New York system of almshouse construction. It provides different buildings for the sexes, with an administration building in the center, a service building behind it, all joined by a connecting corridor. Because of his friendship for the Indian cause, he was adopted into the Seneca nation and given the name of "Hei-Wah-yeh-tah," meaning "the man who always does the right thing."

Prairie Play, Hide-and-Seek.

Some years ago a topographer was sent out from Washington to make a survey of what was then Payne prairie, Florida, a bit of land about 85 miles in extent. The survey was made and the prairie described. Three or four years later a new surveying expedition found that this land had been transformed into a body of water, and it was put on the map as Lake Alachu. It developed that this lake-prairie plays a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde game with itself, sometimes appearing as one and sometimes as the other.
